The commercials, for Mayur and the RoundOne team.

Hey Mayur,

You've had 25 of these, so here it is up front: price, what you get, how we measure it and what happens if we miss.

3 pages. no call needed to read it.

Land even one short of 40, say 39, and the next month's campaign runs at higher volume, free.

What we'd run for RoundOne

Who we email	UK contact centres and BPOs hiring at volume, plus small and mid-size recruitment agencies.
Job titles	Head of Talent Acquisition, Recruitment Manager, Resourcing Lead, Operations Director, agency owners.
The angle	Your own point: every CV looks the same now, so hearing a candidate tells a recruiter more than reading one.
The hook	Your 14-day free trial and a live sample screen, so the first step costs them nothing.

Who goes on the list, and why that week

Opening a new site
Hundreds of hires landing at once.

Sponsored jobs on Indeed
Paying for volume they then have to screen.

Hiring a volume recruiter
Screening is the bottleneck right now.

What you pay, and what you get.

	RECOMMENDED Done-for-you	Consultation
Price	$2,000 for 50 days	$500 for 5 weeks
Payment	Upfront. No setup fees, no per-demo charges	Upfront
Who sends	We do, on our own domains and inboxes	Your team, on your own tools
What you get	Domains, warmed inboxes, signal lists, copy you approve, reply handling, demos booked into your calendar, a report every Monday	The system built on your setup, A/B-testable copy and the signal lists
Guarantee	40 qualified demos in 50 days. Even one short, the next month's campaign runs at higher volume, free	None: you own the sending
If you stop	Domains, inboxes, lists and copy are yours to keep	It's already yours

Why upfront: outbound costs us before a single reply lands: domains, inboxes, warm-up, data and copy. The guarantee is how we carry the risk on results.

Even at 30%, you're ahead in month one.

A qualified demo, written down before we start

Who	A hiring decision-maker or budget holder: Head of TA, Recruitment Manager, Ops Director or agency owner.
Where	A UK contact centre, BPO or recruitment agency hiring at volume, for example 20+ open roles.
Counts when	They turn up. No-shows don't count, and we rebook them.

Everything in the $2,000.

nothing extra later

Sending setup
Separate domains and warmed inboxes. roundone.ai is never at risk.

Signal lists
Verified contacts at companies showing a signal, refreshed weekly.

Copy you approve
Personalised first lines per company, signed off before launch.

Reply handling
We answer, handle objections and book demos into your calendar.

Monday report
Sent, replies, demos booked, and what we change next.

Yours to keep
Stop any time after day 50 and the whole system is yours.

What happens after you say go

Day 0
Reply "go"
We send the agreement and the draft demo definition.

Day 1–3
Sign it off
You edit the definition until it's yours.

Week 1
30-min kickoff
Your booking link, customer list, and how you sell.

Day 15
First emails out
Tested in small batches, then scaled.

We're confident we can deliver this.

If you're confident in your product, this could work out incredibly well. You approve the list and every email before anything goes out, and you get a report every Monday.

Days 1–14: build
Definition signed, lists and copy approved

Days 15–24: test
Small batches per signal, learn fast

Days 25–50: scale
Demos land in your calendar

Reply "go", or book 30 minutes.
